1. These rules may be called the Army Amendment Rules, 1968.
2. In Appendix 1 to the Army Rules, 1954, in Form No. 1—Combatants, in question No. 9, after the words “any Police Force” the words “or in any civil capacity under the Central Government, State Government or former Provincial Government” shall be inserted.

[Case No. 87357/Rtg/5 (OR)/7694/D(AG-II).]

S. DEVANATH, Dy. Secy.

New Delhi, the 4th November 1968

S.R.O. 340.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (3) and (23) of section 282 and by section 283 of the cantonements Act, 1924 (2 of 1924), the Cantonment Board, St. Thomas Mount cum Pallavaram hereby makes the following bye-laws for regulation of the collection and recovery of tax on advertisements and the the posting of bills and advertisements in the St. Thomas Mount cum Pallavram Cantonment, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act namely:—

Bye-Laws for Regulation of the collection and recovery of tax on Advertisements in the St. Thomas Mount Cum Pallavaram Cantonment.

1. The Board may, by notification
 - (a) prohibit the erection, exhibition, fixation, retention of display of all or any class of advertisements in any street, road or public park or part thereof or in any place of public resort; and
 - (b) regulate the erection, exhibition, fixation, retention or display of advertisements in any manner in non-prohibited area.
2. No person shall erect, exhibit, fix, retain or display or cause to be erected, exhibited, fixed, retained or displayed, any advertisement in any street, road or public park or part thereof or in any place of public resort notified under bye-law 1.
3. No person shall erect, exhibit, fix, retain or display or cause to be erected, exhibited, fixed, retained or displayed any advertisements so as to injuriously affect the amenities of any historic public building or monument or of any public park or pleasure promenade.
4. No vehicle used for the purpose of advertisement shall display any advertisement in a manner, form or method different from that approved by the Cantonment Executive Officer.
5. No person shall deface or cause to be defaced any sign or mark or letter or words that shall have been put by the Cantonment Executive Officer on the advertisements erected, exhibited, fixed, retained or displayed in token of their having been permitted or approved by him and of the tax having been collected thereon.
6. Advertisement hoardings—
 - (i) shall not be more than 9 metres high,
 - (ii) shall not project or be on or over the public way more than 15 c.m. beyond the general line of buildings in the street or more than 30 c.m. beyond the building line in the street for which a building line has been prescribed, and
 - (iii) shall not be within 30 metres from any public park or pleasure promenade.
7. (1) Every person desiring to erect, exhibit, fix, retain or display advertisements shall send or cause to be sent to the Cantonment Executive Officer not less than 7 clear days before the advertising is to be made and in time before printing copies of advertisements or painting advertisement or exhibiting them in any manner, a notice in duplicate in writing in such form as may be determined by the Cantonment Executive Officer with all the particulars required therein together with a copy of the matter to be advertised:

Provided that the Cantonment Executive Officer may, for valid reasons, reduce the time limit in special cases.

(ii) If the Cantonment Executive Officer approves of the intended advertisement, he shall, within four days from the date of receipt of the notice, intimate to the applicant the tax due on such advertisement

(iii) The original of the notice shall be returned to the applicant immediately on payment of tax with instructions either to incorporate the licence number and date in the advertisement copies to be printed for displaying within the St. Thomas Mount cum Pallavaram Cantonment or in the paintings to be done, or to produce copies of advertisements for stamping with the Board's stamp in token of the tax having been paid and the advertiser shall carry out the instructions.

(iv) (a) Where the giving of previous notice under clause (i) is not practicable copies of the advertisement proposed to be erected, exhibited, fixed, retained or displayed shall be produced along with the application for approval under that clause.

(b) On the payment of the tax due in respect of such advertisements the Board's stamp shall be affixed on all copies of such advertisement in token of the tax having been collected.

(v) When it is considered by the Cantonment Executive Officer that in any case the nature of the advertisement does not admit of production or incorporation of the licence number and date, the production of such copies of advertisement for the purpose of affixing the Board's stamp or the incorporation of the licence number and date shall not be insisted upon.

8. Persons or agencies who undertake the display of advertisements on behalf of others shall enrol themselves as licensed advertisers on payment of security deposit of not more than one hundred rupees and not less than fifty rupees each as the Cantonment Executive Officer may decide in each case for the due observance of the bye-laws.

9. (i) Every person who prints or paints an advertisement shall print or write legibly his name in all the copies of such advertisement.

(ii) Every such person shall also maintain accounts showing the name of the person for whom the work was done, the number of copies printed and supplied or the number of paintings done and the size of advertisements or the measurements of space occupied by such advertisements.

(iii) Such accounts shall be produced before the Cantonment Executive Officer whenever so required by him.

10. Whoever commits a breach of any of the bye-laws 2 to 9 shall be punishable

- (a) with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees; or
- (b) with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to twenty rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention; or
- (c) with fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which the contravention continues after the receipt of a notice from the Board by the person contravening the bye-law requiring such person to discontinue such contravention

11. Notwithstanding the provision contained in bye-law 10 if the licensed advertiser contravenes any of the provisions of these bye-laws the security deposit paid by him shall be liable to forfeiture to the Cantonment Board.
